

NEWSLETTER DECEMBER 2025

December 6th - Chiranthana at Dassault Systèmes:

Step Towards Inclusive Empowerment Chiranthana was proud to participate in the Dassault Systèmes event, where we set up a dedicated stall to showcase products handcrafted by our neurodiverse individuals. The stall featured a range of sustainable and creative items, reflecting the skills, dedication, and potential of our intellectually diverse adults.

December 24th - Chiranthana Sports Day:

Fun, Energy, and Celebration! Chiranthana's Sports Day was a day full of excitement, energy, and smiles! Our children, parents, and staff came together to celebrate movement, teamwork, and confidence through a variety of fun activities, including musical chairs, ring games, lemon-and-spoon races, balancing bottles, puzzle challenges, and parent-child games.

December 21st - Chiranthana at Sunday Soul Sante:

Celebrating Inclusion and Creativity Chiranthana was delighted to participate in Sunday Soul Sante, where we put up a vibrant stall showcasing products handcrafted by our neurodiverse individuals. The event provided a wonderful platform to display their creativity, skills, and hard work to a diverse and appreciative audience.

December 24th - Chiranthana Christmas Sale - A Festive Celebration of Creativity:

The festive spirit came alive at Chiranthana Christmas Sale, held at our school, where visitors explored a delightful range of handcrafted and sustainable products made by our neurodiverse individuals. The sale featured Christmas mugs, handmade wall hangings, aromatic candles, AASE books, hand-embroidery DIY kits, seed pencils with crochet caps, and crochet items — each created with care, skill, and creativity.

We're grateful for the wonderful support shown this December! Thank you for helping us continue our mission of empowering special needs adults through meaningful employment opportunities.
