GROWTH IS CONTINUOUS

What's new at Chiranthana?

We have introduced a new line of crochet toys – The Avengers in association with Go Native. The toys are made with pure cotton wool and are the result of the collective effort of our team at Gubbi Vocational Skill centre. The launch of these products is scheduled for September 2nd. It has been an exciting journey through a lot of mistakes and learnings but we have been able to get the project going and are happy to share the news with you.

Independence Day celebrations at Chiranthana

We celebrated Independence Day on August 15th with great fanfare at Ale – the Art Hub. It was attended by guests, parents, students and teachers at Chiranthana. The Chief Guest was Kalpana Prasad, the founder of Srushti Montessori. The students of Chiranthana presented a dance on Jai ho, India wale, Teri mitti and sang Vande Mataram and then the students exhibited the Aase products through a freedom walk. Joel and Shreyas co-hosted and managed the show. It was an experience to cherish.

Our Gubbi team also celebrated Independence Day with a Fancy dress competition for special children at GHPS - Gubbi. The children took part in the competition with a lot of enthusiasm.

Training session at Gubbi Vocational Skill Centre.

A training session was held at the Gubbi Vocational Skill Centre. This training programme was conducted by Bhavana Bhatia of My Bhavana on the 26th of August. The team at Gubbi was trained in fabric doll making, crochet dressmaking and macrame dressmaking. Our team got to learn the nuances of dress-making and doll-making from Bhavana, an expert in design.

Orders executed

Executed an order for pouches in upcycled denim fabric. The Gubbi team was involved in embroidery work, and stitching on denim fabric. This project was done in association with Kauseyah.

Star of the month

Congratulations

Shreyas is a very smart and hardworking student. He performed well in his studies as well as other activities. He is a regular student and he is focused towards the NIOS exams approaching next month.

We wish Shreyas and Vishruth who are taking up their NIOS Secondary exams in September / October all the best.
