GROWTH IS CONTINUOUS

What's new at Chiranthana?

Its raining awards at Chiranthana !!!

Congratulations Rachana

It was a proud moment for everyone at Chiranthana when the Short film “ Im Enough” directed by Rachana was selected for an award in the 30 minute short film category at the International Purplefest Goa. The Award ceremony was also held at the Kala Academy, Goa on 13th January.

The movie showcases the challenges and the social biases and stigma attached to people with visual impairment and also how one can overcome these challenges, with grit and determination.

Chiranthana rocks at Kalangana

Kalangana is an Annual cultural event for children with special needs. Chiranthana got an opportunity to showcase the talent of all the children at this event. Gagana won the third place for Solo dance, Joel won the first place in the Solo Music category, and Melisha won the third prize in the Solo Music category. Asmi won a special award for Art and the children also participated in the Inclusive fashion walk with their siblings Chiranthana at “Divya Kreedha Shakthi”

Aruna Chetana , a school for children with special needs organised a Interschool sports day on January 30, 2024 at Nadaprabhu Kempegowda Stadium. Chiranthana's students participated enthusiastically and won many prizes. Melisha won the first prize in building a pyramid and potato race, Mehwish got second prize in potato race, Namratha won the second place at the sack race, and waterfilling event. Saideep won the third prize in frog race.

Chethan and Asmi got second prize in tap the balloon and collect things. Riddhi secured the second place in Building the pyramid event.

Congratulations to all the winners and participants. Chiranthana is proud of you.

ONGC order

We have been busy processing an order for ONGC for Ipad Sleeves, Jute bags, springtime pouches, Macrame Key chains and Travel wallets as a part of the giveaways for the guests at the India Energy Week Gala Dinner to be hosted by ONGC on 7th of February at Goa. The products were stitched at the Gubbi Unit and were then embroidered and blockprinted at the Bengaluru Unit. It was a collective effort and Kudos to all the people with special needs working with Chiranthana . A special mention for the women who have stitched the products.

Jai Shri Ram

Chiranthana celebrated the consecration of the Ram Mandir at Ayodhya on 22nd of January 2024. We organised Ram Bhajans and also organised a march in Sunder Nagar.

Chiranthana is proud to be celebrating this significant milestone in the history of our country.

STAR OF THE MONTH - DEC 2023

Asmi is the star of the month. She has participated in Kalangana and the sports event and won many prizes She has been well behaved and is helping other children too. She has shown a lot of interest in learning computer skills. Her overall performance has been very good.
