DECEMBER 2024

Chiranthana Presents "Undefined 2024" A Grand Celebration

Chiranthana, a center for holistic development and vocational skills for individuals with special needs, proudly hosted "Undefined 2024" on December 14th at Alliance Française, Bengaluru. The event was a huge success, graced by special guests Ms. Pooja Gandhi, acclaimed actress; Mr. Sudheesh Venkatesh, communications leader; and Ms. Shrikamala, celebrated entrepreneur. Our talented students captivated the audience with a grand musical inspired by the timeless Panchatantra Tales. The evening beautifully showcased creativity and inclusivity.

Exciting Collaboration Announced at "Undefined 2024"

We are thrilled to announce that Luvia Bakery has collaborated with Chiranthana to prepare pre-mix packaging for muffins, cakes, brownies, and more. As part of this partnership, our students will soon be trained in packaging and preparing cookies and muffins, equipping them with valuable skills for future opportunities. This initiative marks another step toward fostering creativity, independence, and inclusivity.
