

CHIRANTHANA NEWSLETTER JUNE 2025

June – A Fresh Start

June 4th – Grand Welcome & Orientation:

The dawn of the new academic year at Chiranthana was marked by a beautiful and heartfelt welcome, setting the tone for a year filled with learning, growth, and togetherness. As the school gates opened, the air was filled with warmth, excitement, and anticipation. Each child was received with open arms, a beaming smile, and a traditional gesture of love and positivity that made the day truly memorable.

June 10th– Baking Unit Inauguration:

From the comforting aroma of warm cookies straight out of the oven to the delicate charm of beautifully decorated muffins and cakes, our young chefs have embraced this venture with passion and enthusiasm. Each recipe is prepared with care, each product crafted with love—and the results are as heartwarming as they are tasty.

June 19th– CXO 2025 Award:

It was a moment of immense pride and celebration as Ms. Rachana Prasad was honored with the Champion of Social Impact Award at the prestigious CXO 2025 event. This remarkable recognition shines a spotlight on her unwavering commitment to creating meaningful change, her visionary leadership, and her relentless drive to serve communities with compassion and purpose.

June 25th – NIOS student achievement:

Celebrating academic excellence and perseverance! We are incredibly proud to share that Kavin has successfully cleared his Senior Secondary Examinations with outstanding results through the National Institute of Open Schooling (NIOS). This remarkable achievement is not just a reflection of academic success, but a true testament to his resilience, commitment, and unwavering determination.

We're grateful for the wonderful support shown this June! Thank you for helping us continue our mission of empowering special needs adults through meaningful employment opportunities.
